Discussion concerned the need to hire a new bookkeeper because of the departure of the current bookkeeper. She will remain to help the new hire through the transition. Barbara is interviewing bookkeeper company. Agricultural grants need to be reviewed with Amanda.
Project Updates:

Ct DEEP
Payment for 319 2010 grant has been processed and left the Water Bureau on November 27th. EPA wants a peer review but final payment has been made. Amanda will help organize the review. They are working on getting out the RFP for the 2016 319 Grants. Turnaround time will be a month or 2. There is not as much money for broad ranging planning projects.

CT DEEP is interested in partnering with CT RC&D. CT RC&D should contact Chuck Lee with any questions.

There is a DEEP Report coming soon concerning PA 12-155, An Act Concerning Phosphorus Reductions in State Waters, from the Coordinating Committee and 3 working groups.

Agricultural Program: (Contact Amanda for distributed Report)
Amanda would like a program specialist hired to help with the Agricultural Program.

Salmon River Watershed Partnership:
Pat Young not in attendance but Amanda passed out 2 handouts – Project Updates December 15, 2015 and Outreach Activities Related to Storm water & Water Quality.

Urban Oakes
Urban Oakes has ceased to exist but has received a $5,000 check form UIL.
Motion: To accept $5,000 donation check from UIL to distribute with the help of Liz Aronson to an organization in New Britain for urban agricultural purposes because Urban Oaks has ceased to exist.
Motion made by: Lois Bruinooge
Seconded by: Sal DeCarli
Voted: Motion approved unanimously.

CACIWC
CACIWC is interested in exploring partnership with RC&D. They are in need of administrative assistance with things such as training, Habitat newsletter, and annual conference. They are a standalone 501c3 that is funded by dues. Aassisting CACIWC is part of the ERT mission.
Motion: To send a letter of interest to CACIWC concerning partnership opportunities.
Motion made by: Barbara Kelly
Seconded by: Jim Costello
Voted: Motion approved unanimously.

Organizational Capacity & Hiring:
The Executive Committee chose 2 candidates of interest out of the 4 candidates that were interviewed. Both candidates will be invited back for a second interview. An Executive Director program time allocation profile needs to be created. It was decided that all board members could participate in the next round of interviews.

Office Consolidation:

Space needs to be thought about because Amanda stated that she needs help on a contract basis by Feb. 1st.
Office location possibilities were discussed and it was decided to stay at the UConn Extension Office in Haddam.

Motion: To extend the lease authorization amendment of UConn lease for the Haddam office for $344.79/month and reaffirm the minority discrimination declaration.
- Motion made by: Barbara Kelly
- Seconded by: Sal DeCarli
