RESOURCE CONSERVATION & DEVELOPMENT

2024 Scholarship Program

Guidelines

Connecticut Resource Conservation and Development Area, Inc (CT RC&D), a 501(c)(3) statewide charitable organization, announces its Scholarship Award Program for 2024. Under this program, two (2) $500 scholarships will be awarded to graduating high school seniors, students attending a post-secondary technical school, or a college or university in Connecticut. Children of CT RC&D employees or council members are not eligible to apply.

Available Scholarships

(1) Norma O’Leary Agriculture Scholarship - $500 for a student pursuing a post-secondary technical or college career in agriculture.

(1) Linda B. Krause Conservation Scholarship - $500 for a student pursuing a post-secondary technical school or college career in conservation.

Program Guidelines & Priorities

- Eligible students include graduating high school seniors pursuing a career in agriculture or conservation and technical or college students currently matriculated in a conservation or agriculture degree program in Connecticut. Applicants who are graduating high school seniors should demonstrate participation in after school activities related to agriculture or conservation.
- Applicants must have a minimum GPA of 2.5, a total family annual income under $200,000, and plan to pursue a 2- or 4- year agriculture or conservation program at a post-secondary technical school, college, or university in Connecticut.
- Applicants who are graduating high school seniors must have the endorsement of their Guidance Counselor on their application attesting they meet the eligibility requirements for this scholarship program.

Application Instructions

Each application package must include: CT RC&D Scholarship Application Form, a <500 words essay written by the applicant, a Guidance Counselor signature (for graduating high school seniors only), and their school transcript showing GPA. Email one copy of a completed application package to jahey@ctracd.org by the application deadline. The application deadline is Friday, May 17, 2024 by midnight. Late applications will not be accepted.

Application Review & Selection

Each complete application will be reviewed, and recipients selected by a committee consisting of CT RC&D Council Members. The scholarships will be awarded at the CT RC&D Annual Meeting on Wednesday, June 5, 2024, to which we ask recipients to attend.

Applications may be downloaded from the CT RC&D website at <https://ctracd.org/about-us/scholarships-awards/>
